

The Berkeley College Corporate Learning Partnership

Berkeley College is pleased to offer Corporate Learning Partners a tuition reduction to help make education more affordable for Veramazo Elder Care Concierge employees and their immediate family members.

In addition to preparing traditional college students for a widerange of careers, Berkeley College also specializes in continuingeducation for working professionals. Through our Corporate Learning Partnership, Veramazo Elder Care Concierge employees and their families can:

- Learn new skills to take on increased roles and added responsibilities
- Enhance their existing skills to improve productivity
- Prepare employees to manage or train others by having them pursue degrees to build skills to further advance their careers

Benefits include:

- Up to a 30% tuition reduction for employees and their immediate families*
- Extensive support services available online and on site
- Employees may be eligible for credit for prior learning or work experience
- Credits earned at other colleges may be transferable toward a degree program at Berkeley College
